Edinburgh, Fife and the Tay Cities

Interim Timetable B

Draft Timetable for Consultation

Service Summary

ScotRail is proposing a new timetable for Fife and the Tay Cities, and is consulting on its proposed Planned Timetable, as well as an interim timetable.

There are two interim timetable options for consideration which would operate following the reopening of the Levenmouth Rail Link in late spring / early summer 2024, as well as an enhanced proposal for services from 2025. This is Interim Timetable B, and includes the following services:

- One local train per hour from Edinburgh to Leven via Kirkcaldy.
- One local train per hour from Edinburgh to Perth via Kirkcaldy (as operates at present).
- One local train per hour from Edinburgh to Cowdenbeath (as operates at present).
- One local train per hour from Edinburgh to Glenrothes with Thornton via Cowdenbeath (as operates at present).
- One semi-fast train per hour from Edinburgh to Dundee via Kirkcaldy.
- Two intercity trains every three hours between Edinburgh and Aberdeen (as operates at present).
- Additional peak local services between Edinburgh and Fife (as operates at present).

This timetable will provide an enhanced evening service of two local trains per hour between Edinburgh and Cowdenbeath, and two local trains per hour between Edinburgh and Kirkcaldy.

This timetable will provide Leven with one train per hour to Edinburgh and Kirkcaldy, but will not provide direct services to Dunfermline or Cowdenbeath.

This timetable will provide faster journey times between Dundee, North Fife, and Edinburgh, and improve local connectivity between Dalmeny, North Queensferry, and the Fife Coast.

Feedback on this timetable can be submitted at <https://www.scotrail.co.uk/fife-and-tay-cities-timetable-consultation> until Monday, 23 October 2023.

General Information

Times contained within this timetable will be subject to further change either following the consultation process, due to the timetable validation process, or due to ScotRail's resourcing requirements.

This timetable must not be used for journey planning purposes.

This timetable only contains ScotRail services.

This timetable only shows Monday to Saturday services; however, Saturday times may vary.

Leven and Cameron Bridge will have an hourly service on Sundays, consistent with other stations in Fife. ScotRail will use feedback it receives on the Monday to Saturday timetable to produce the Sunday timetable.

The following abbreviations are used throughout this timetable:
